Respond to your offer online

As an international student there are a number of steps you need to complete to finalise your enrolment. The Get Started at Melbourne website will guide you through these steps to ensure a smooth transition from accepting your offer to your first class. You can also find information on deferring or declining your offer. Please note that this offer will only remain open as long as there are places still left in the course. If you do not accept your offer by the deadline mentioned below it may lapse.

Accept your offer

The Student Acceptance and Payment Agreement is a contract between you and the University. Completing the online form is the first step to Get Started at Melbourne. You can view the Agreement online and it is important that you read it carefully and save a copy for your records. You can then submit the online form to accept your offer. Once you've completed the Agreement online you'll receive your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) which you'll need to obtain a student visa.

*Fees for graduate studies are course-based. Fees for undergraduate studies are subject-based. The University provides a guarantee to international students who enrol, that course fees will not increase by more than a specified percentage per annum. For more information about tuition fees please refer to the fees website.

Overseas Health Cover Premiums quoted are as at the time of offer and may change. If the premium has changed by the time you accept this offer and you request the University to arrange OSHC for you, you may be required to make an additional payment or if you have also paid a tuition fee deposit, some of these funds can be used to cover any shortfall. International students are required to purchase Visa Length Cover at the time of accepting their offer. If you choose to use the University's preferred OSHC provider, BUPA, once you arrive in Australia you will be able to apply for a refund for the period of cover prior to your arrival into Australia. If you choose another OSHC provider, you will need to make contact with that provider to seek this advice. If you have been granted and accept advanced standing in your course the course duration may change, which in turn will change the Overseas Student Health Cover you are required to purchase. For more information please visit the OSHC website.

Important information

Online short course Biochemical Basis for Human Life

The online short course Biochemical Basis for Human Life is highly recommended for students entering the Master of Nursing Science from a non-science background, and students from science backgrounds who have not studied for several years. This is not compulsory but may be beneficial for some students as they prepare to commence the course. Details:

<https://study.unimelb.edu.au/find/short-courses/biochemical-basis-for-human-life>.

Acceptance and Enrolment Deadline

Please note you must accept your offer by the deadline specified on this offer letter.

You must also enrol into the course and subjects by the deadline specified on this offer letter.

Students need to be in Melbourne prior to the commencement of classes on Monday 29 January 2024. Orientation will be held in the week before classes start.

Student Placement Requirements

As part of your course you will be required to undertake study in a clinical environment. In order to undertake these placements, you must meet certain conditions as set out by the University of Melbourne and its clinical partners. These conditions have been determined under the guidance of the Victorian Government's Department of Health and Human Services' guidelines. Failure to meet these conditions may result in you being unable to undertake placement and therefore unable to complete your course. Information regarding these conditions, including instructions for meeting them, can be found via the Faculty's Student Placement Compliance website:

<https://mdhs.unimelb.edu.au/study/current-students/placements>. Please ensure you visit the above website, read it thoroughly, and undertake all relevant actions to meet these requirements as soon possible. The final due date for compliance documents will be in the new year, and you will receive a reminder approximately 4 weeks before this date. If you have any questions, please email health-hub@unimelb.edu.au or call the Health Hub on 03 8344 5807 (option 3).

Please refer to the following weblink for more information on your clinical placement:
